Dear Mr. Newell,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 29th ultimo in reference to the issuance of a medal by the Society to commemorate Paul Revere's Ride. I am not very much in favor of the Society's striking medals as its funds are limited except where advance subscriptions will warrant it or where the issuance of such will at once appeal to the popular will. I verily believe that the cherished deeds of great men and events should be commemorated but for some unexplainable reason such medals do not seem to sell very well.

In regard to the striking of a Paul Revere medal I would in this instance approve of our trying it out and see how it will be received.

Sincerely yours,
